DRIVER LOST YESTERDAY ON PORTAGE PLAINS

Storm Which Swept the West Yesterday Probably Caused
Loss of One Life—Wide Area Covered by the Storm

Portage la Prairie, Jan. 22. — The wild storm which has been blowing across the plains since yesterday, may be accountable for one death. Last evening a laborer employed on a farm, named Brooks, 12 miles north, left to drive home against the blinding snow but never reached his destination. This morning the team was discovered near the city and as one of the horses is badly cut it is presumed they have been wandering all night against the hard wire fences. There was no sign of the driver.

Winnipeg, Jan. 22.—Western Canada had its first experience with genuine winter during the last two days. In that period there has been a very realistic imitation of the blizzard that has made the Dakotas famous. There were periods Saturday when the wind hit up a clip that came close to fifty miles an hour and laboring Winnipeg was forcibly reminded that there had been something doing in the snow line when it waded into drifts that blocked the sidewalks. The snowfall has been medium, however, considering the length of the period over which the storm has continued. The area affected is large, extending from Swift Current to Kenora, and from the Canadian boundary on the south to Battleford.

ONLY AN "INCIPIENT"
Gulleyville, Ecuador, Jan. 22.—In an incipient revolution here 300 were killed. Order was later restored.

FELL FROM A BALLOON
Fort Worth, Texas.—Lindsay Cooper the aeronaut fell 2500 feet from a balloon and was instantly killed.

A CALGARY INVESTIGATION.
(Alberian)

The police reported to the Commissioners on their investigation of the weight of bread. The result of the investigation is given as follows.

T. Engdahl, Esq., Chief of Police.
Sgt.—Today I visited the following bakeries and weighed their bread:

J. W. Shelly. No new bread this morning but almost up to standard weight.

P. Tillyard. Same as Shelly's bread.

J. A. Schmidt. Model Bakery. Pound and half loaf two ounces and a quarter short of standard weight, newly baked. Took 14 of same to police station. All in stock.

S. Thomas. Bakes only pound and a half loaves, all over weight.

Pittman's Stores. No new bread, but all up to standard.

Skirrett & Head. Almost correct weight.

H. Worden. Correct weight.

J. Mills. Four ounces over weight on all pound and half loaves, and four ounces under on two pound loaves. Took 97 loaves to the police station for your inspection.

A NEW ERA FOR TRANSVAAL

Asquith Announces that Responsible Government Will be Given South African Colonies

London, Jan. 22.—That this is the intention of the Government to give the Transvaal responsible Government like Canada was announced by Asquith Saturday night. A report has been current that it was to be done at the coming session. Asquith said he was speaking for all his colleagues as well as himself in expressing the earnest desire that the Transvaal and Orange River Colonies should at the earliest possible moment be given the management of their internal affairs. Difficulties he said undoubtedly existed in South Africa but these would be most satisfactorily settled by bringing the people together in the work of government just as troubles had been settled in Canada where the people were more acutely separated from one another in blood, religion and traditions than ever were Boer and British.

WELL KNOWN HOTEL MAN GONE
Winnipeg, Jan. 22.—Capt. W. D. Douglas, one of the best known hotel-men in the northwest and formerly proprietor of the Leisler, Winnipeg, died this morning of cancer aged 71. He was an Irishman by birth but settled in Melbourne in the early sixties. He was a skipper on a Frisco line of sailing ships. In '64 he was a blockade runner on the Mississippi. From '70 to '81 he was a captain on the Union Steamship line of Chicago. Since then he was hotel keeping in Winnipeg.

CARMAN MILLS BURNED.
Carman, Jan. 22.—Entire plant and all the lumber of the Manitoba Lumber Co. went up in smoke at an early hour this morning. The alarm was sent in by some men returning from a party. The engines were pulled up to the scene and the fire was confined to the lumber yard and building. There was a fierce wind blowing.

PROMINENT BARRISTER GONE
Toronto, Jan. 22.—A wide circle of friends in Canada will learn with sorrow of the death of Ghent Davis, a barrister, formerly of Winnipeg, which took place at Denver, Colorado, of heart failure. He was formerly a partner of N. F. Hagsel.

HALIFAX MERCHANT SUICIDES
Halifax, Jan. 22.—The suicide took place yesterday at his home of Samuel Scott of the wholesale millinery firm of Wellner and Scott. For some time Scott had been suffering from insomnia.

LONDON FUR SALES.

—The big fur sales in London, which are of such large interest to the dealers in Edmonton and the whole north country, commence this afternoon, and cables will be received in the city within the next couple of hours showing the tendency of the market in the old country. The Hudson's Bay sale is for one day only, today. The Lamson sales commence today and last five days, until the 26th inclusive.

It is apprehended, on account of advance information received in the city that the prices realized today will be low, on account of the Russian troubles and for several other reasons, but nothing will be known until the cables are received this evening.

KILLED BY FALLING TIMBER

Workman on Kewatin Flour Mill Crushed by Broken Derrick

Kewatin, Jan. 22.—Saturday, a serious accident occurred at the new Kewatin flour mill being constructed by the MacDonald Engineering Company of Chicago. A derrick which was used for lifting rock from the archway 40 feet in depth broke precipitating a load of rock and huge timbers into a cut in which twenty men were at work. The timbers fell pinning one man to earth. Three others were hit by falling rocks. The injured men were conveyed to the hospital where one man, a Gallean, whose name is unknown, died. The others are lying at the point of death.

"DOMINION" COMMUNICATES.
Cape Race, Newfoundland, Jan. 22.—H. M. S. Dominion bearing the body of Hon. Raymond Prefontaine was in communication with the wireless telegraph station here at 8 p.m. yesterday. She was 90 miles south.

C.P.R. LAND WITHDRAWN FROM SALE.

Acting on instructions from the head office in Winnipeg, G. T. Bragg, local land agent for the Canadian Pacific, has withdrawn all land in the Edmonton district from the market. A rise in price is considered almost certain to follow. Heretofore the land lying south and east of this city, that is to say the land between Edmonton and range 8 on the south and east along the Vermilion, has been selling for $8 an acre, and the land to the north and west has been selling for $6 an acre. There is now no $6 land to be had in the province of Al- up at a private sale.

EDMONTON'S BIG 'SPEIL WILL BEGIN TO-NIGHT

Arrangements Completed for the Biggest Event in the History of the Edmonton Club—Splendid Ice—
Many Outside Rinks Coming

The opening games in the 4th annual bonspiel of the Edmonton Curling Club will be played to-night, commencing at 8 o'clock.

All entries should be in at 7 o'clock, when the draw for the games will be made.

Arrangements are now completed for the conducting of the bonspiel, and everything possible has been done by the committee in charge to make the affair a big success.

The rinks are in readiness for the curlers, and the ice this year will be better than ever, as each rink has been flooded separately. Philip Shafer, the expert ice manufacturer, who is popular with Edmonton curlers for the magnificent ice he provides, returned on Saturday from visiting his home in Kansas, and now the curlers of the city are resting assured that they will have nothing to complain of as regards the quality of ice. Mr. Shafer worked late last night getting the rinks in shape, and the ice is in perfect condition. Besides the three sheets in the curling rink, four sheets have been laid off in the skating rink, and there will be ample accommodation for all rinks entering for competition in the bonspiel.

The number of entries will be large this year. Some ten rinks from the city will probably be on hand, and a great many outside rinks will be present. A rink from Vegreville, one from Saskatoon and one from Lloydminster arrived on Saturday evening on the C.N.R. Rinks from Wetaskiwin, Strathcona, Fort Saskatchewan and other points are expected to-night.

The games to be played tonight are for the district trophy, and the district medals. The games for the district medals will be played between Strathcona and Wetaskiwin, two teams from each place. The district trophy will be played for between Edmonton and Wetaskiwin, one team each. The games start at eight sharp.

The public will be welcome at all times to witness the matches. No admission fee whatever is charged, and the waiting rooms will be kept heated for the comfort of the visitors and spectators. Ladies are especially invited.

—Fred Knight has made application to the building inspector for a permit to build a brick residence on his lot 8, west side of Eighth street, at a cost of $2600. The architectural design calls for a two-story house with mansard roof, 26 by 36 feet. The plan generally is a very handsome one.

A GREAT CANADIAN RAILWAY BUILDER

(Toronto Globe)

The current use of the phrase "makers of Canada" has been too narrowly restricted to those who have either had a share in the foundation of Canada or in the building up of its constitution. A wider and truer application of the term, while in no way diminishing the fame surrounding these distinguished names, would extend it also to those who are engaged in the great constructive enterprises of Canada. The man whose life-work is the construction of railways and ships, the building of towns and cities, the conversion of waterpowers into public utilities, the employment on a vast scale for the public service of the mysterious forces, electricity, the production of coal and iron, gold and silver, oil and lumber, is in a very actual sense a maker of his country. Among the men in our midst pre-eminent in this work Mr. William Mackenzie stands in the very front ranks. There is hardly a phase of the development of our natural resources in which he has not been an active and controlling spirit. It is as president of the Canadian Northern Railway that he is today chiefly known to the world of finance and industry, and it is as the originator and captain of this great enterprise that he will be chiefly remembered in time to come; but this is one only, though the chief, of a host of undertakings that owe their conception and accomplishment to his sagacity and determination.

Mr. Mackenzie owes little to fortune beyond a sound mind in a sound body, which is after all the most precious gift in his possession. He was born at Kirkfield, Ont., in 1818, and his amazing activity and intellectual vitality at fifty-seven furnishes one more striking disproof of Dr. Oler's dictum that a man's best work is done before he is forty, though it is likely that the physician had no thought of extending his theory to the regions of the commercial and industrial world. At any rate it is certain that Mr. Mackenzie. It is sufficient to mention that for a time in his youth he taught school, and there is a legend to the effect that he given promise of success in this calling, he gave up the idea of teaching and has since continued in it. But his genius lay in a wider field. His mind grasped great problems and refused to concern itself with details. The characteristic remains with him yet. He still could not fill satisfactorily the position of one of his subordinates but much less it need hardly be said could one of his subordinates fill Mr. Mackenzie's place. He conceives a project and drives it through by force of will refusing to recognize difficulties and advancing step by step in most uncompromising and unflinching spirit. In this respect, says a gentleman who is very close to Mr. Mackenzie in his chief enterprises, he is a remarkable contrast to his partner and associate in the Canadian Northern and other undertakings, Mr. Dan Mann, who surveys carefully every side of a proposition, and advances in cautious and conciliatory mood. Doubtless one is the complement of the other, but the extraordinary success that has attended Mr. Mackenzie's enterprises shows how unerring is the intuition that has guided him. He does not see difficulties, and the word "impossible" is not found in his vocabulary, but, on the other hand, he conceives no project that does not prove to be widely practicable—in his hands.

One of Mr. Mackenzie's busy days may see him at nine in the morning considering a question relating to the financial or construction aspects of the Canadian Northern Railway, which already spans the west from Port Arthur to Edmonton. It may have reference to the location of bonds in London or the determination of the precise route of the railway out in Alberta, or to any one of a thousand problems. Mr. Mackenzie's ripe experience and, perhaps more still, his native intuition in all such matters are invaluable at the council board. He leaves technicalities to the experts with which he is plentifully surrounded, and applies himself directly to the heart of the question in hand, seldom, as we have seen, erring in his judgment.

At 10 o'clock Mr. Mackenzie may have an engagement with the Toronto Railway Company, of which he is also president. This concern is, of course local only in interest and importance, but has occupied always much of Mr. Mackenzie's time and attention and has possibly ruffled his habitual composure more than any other individual enterprise with which he has identified himself; this arising from obvious difficulty of escaping criticism in the management of an enterprise that intimately affects the personal comfort of a vast population. The Toronto Railway is but one of many such companies which Mr. Mackenzie has organized and con-rolled wholly or in part; chief among the others may be named those of Winnipeg and London in Canada, Cleveland in the United States, Birmingham in England, and Sao Paulo in Brazil, with most of which he is still actively associated.

So we might go on and enumerate the hours of the day and the various spheres of activity in which Mr. Mackenzie's time is successively passed from steam railways across the continent his attention is turned to electric railways about the city; next demanding his attention may be the docks under construction at Port Arthur or the ships that are to be brought down from the great lakes the freight transients over the new transcontinental railway, or the mines that furnish the iron to build the ships or the coal to drive them. In all these great elemental industries Mr. Mackenzie is the master and his day is past in advancing or perfecting them. There are countless smaller undertakings also to which the fragments of his time and energy are devoted—hold mining in British Columbia and western Ontario, ranching in the northwest, lumbering in various provinces, oil-producing in Eastern Canada, manufacturing heat, light and power for a Mexican city, farming in Ontario and in fact almost every conceivable line of industry.

On the whole it will be seen that there can be little leisure for a man who not only keeps an eye on these manifold enterprises but closely follows the development of each of them and holds himself responsible for their success. The active supervision of a transcontinental railway would be sufficient vent for the energy and ambition of the ordinary man, but Mr. Mackenzie's agile and versatile mind requires and finds constant occupation in kindred enterprises.

And yet his life is not given over wholly to the material side of things. Great wealth is said to have come to him as a result of his industrial and financial successes, and luxuries as well as the tools of life are known to him. He has a princely mansion with a stately park about it at the north end of Avenue Road, attractively named "Benvenuto." He married young and found a remarkable helpmeet in his wife, who has aided him at every step in his successful progress and enjoys with him his present commanding position. A fine family of nine sons and daughters renders Mr. Mackenzie's domestic happiness complete. He dispenses of his business in business hours and allows nothing to disturb the tranquility of home life. Frequent journeys to Europe which his business enterprises have necessitated have familiarized him, with the old world, and, together with his wealth, has enabled him to gratify a strong, natural taste for art, as a consequence of which his Toronto home is adorned with some of the best paintings in Canada.

Every now and then Mr. Mackenzie steals a few days from the rush and worry of affairs and spends them on a fine farm he owns near his native village of Kirkfield, where he finds enjoyment in a brief relaxation from serious labors, and a return to the scenes of his early life.

Mr. Mackenzie has never taken part in public life, though he watches closely the course of politics. His abilities would undoubtedly have been of inestimable value to either of the great political parties, but a public career would of necessity have limited his activities in other fields. Looking beyond the bonds of Canada, we find that Mr. Mackenzie is an ardent Imperialist and sympathizes with all that makes for the unity of permanence of the British Empire and we may well believe him to be one of the many who stand ready to assist all legitimate movements in this direction. Meantime neither the attractions of public life, on the one hand, or of the leisure ease which might well tempt him, on the other, divert him from his straightforward and brilliantly successful career as a great captain of industry.

CALGARY AND THE C. P. R. RATES

(Albertan)

The fare on the Canadian Pacific railway from Winnipeg to Calgary is $39.45.

The fare from Winnipeg to Edmonton via Calgary on the Canadian Pacific is $27.60.

In this most remarkable way the Canadian Pacific Railway is discriminating in favor of Edmonton and against Calgary.

The Calgary man coming from Winnipeg has to pay $115 more to the Canadian Pacific Railway than the Edmonton man pays in coming to Calgary and taking a 200 mile journey to the north.

The reason for this discrimination is due to the fact that the C. N. R. has already reached Edmonton and is charging a rate of $27.60 from Winnipeg to Edmonton.

The C. P. R. has cut to meet the Edmonton rate with the most remarkable result that they are practically giving a bonus to eastern people to pass Calgary, and go on to Edmonton.

The question will be brought before the Calgary board of trade, and will be discussed at the approaching meeting.

For Family Colds

A reliable cough and cold cure should be always in the house ready for use the moment the first symptoms appear. It is always easier, cheaper and better to check a cold in the very beginning. It is safer, too.

Shiloh's Consumption Cure, the Lung Tonic, has been tested for thirty-three years, and tens of thousands of homes in Canada and the United States to-day are never without it.

A dealer writes: "Shiloh's Consumption Cure is without doubt the best remedy for Coughs and Colds on the market. Once used, no customer will ever be without it. Shiloh's Consumption Cure."—L. Elder, Nanawauke, Ont.

If it were anything but the best would this be so? Try it in your own family. If it does not cure, you get back all the cost you. We take all the chances. Neither you nor your dealer can lose. Isn't that fair? 25c. is the price. All dealers in medicine sell.

I have studied the making of cigars all my life and I know just what style of rolling makes the best smoke.

I have taken the young men of Granby and taught them to make cigars my way—and I watch them to see that each cigar is made that way. If I made every one of my Pharaoh cigars myself they couldn't be more carefully or more perfectly made.

The result is that my

is not rolled so tight that it draws hard or so loose that it burns badly—just the right amount of filler, properly held by the binder, and finished with the wrapper so it smokes freely and burns evenly.

The test of a cigar is the smoking of it, and I am sure after trying my cigar you will agree with me that it is an excellent smoke.

Every genuine "Pharaoh" cigar is branded "Pharo."

MONDAY, JANUARY 22, 1906.

THE DEAL IS OFF.

Mr. R. P. Ingils' letter to Mayor May which was presented to the city council on Friday evening, dispels any doubt which may have existed that the street railway company is scoring for a fresh start. In the letter the proposal was made that the company would be willing to make a further deposit of $10,000 "or any sum the council may see fit" as guarantee that they would by way of palliation for past offences, construct during 1906 "an amount of road in excess of that which the original condition was they should have completed in 1905."

To accept this offer would be to admit the right of the company to lay track within the city or to grant the company an explicit concession to do so, to even seriously consider the proposal would be to confess an uncertainty in the strength of the city's claim that the company has no such right. The attempt to enslave the city into a renewal of negotiations on the basis of the old agreement, is an admission of the company's doubt in the validity of their claim and of a desire to bolster up that claim by fresh admissions or concessions. How badly this stronger hold on the city is wanted is evidenced by the amount of money the company is willing to risk to secure it. The letter was quite properly laid on the table where it should be left indefinitely as evidence that the broken agreement nullifies the former deal and that any communications from Mr. Ingils or any one else regarding street railway matters, must be in the nature of a purely original correspondence with no reference or relation to a bargain which has been annulled by the company's failure to fulfill the conditions of the agreement.

THE FAIR FOR 1906.

The prospect is that the fair for 1906 will be held under the auspices of the city. The Industrial Exhibition Association as an association for the purpose of conducting an exhibition has practically ceased to exist and its property has passed into private hands. To ensure the continuance of the exhibition the council at a recent session leased the grounds for the present year. At the regular meeting on Tuesday evening last the council was waited on by a delegation from the Association and asked to appoint a committee to act in conjunction with a committee to be chosen at a public meeting in arranging and managing the exhibition. It is apparent therefore that upon the city council rests the responsibility of directly or indirectly undertaking the conduct of the fair.

One point may be considered settled—the fair must be held. On this there is only one opinion in the council or out of it. The exhibition has become a recognized factor in the life of the town and district which must be preserved and encouraged. "Edmonton's big fair" has become the annual outing for the district and an event of consequence in the western year which could be suspended only at a tremendous loss of prestige and a sacrifice of material welfare. A fair can be successful only by being thoroughly advertised and an advertisement for the Edmonton fair is an advertisement of Edmonton and its tributary country. Annually the fair has loomed larger in the public eye, has created keener contests among exhibitors and drawn larger crowds of visitors from all sections of Canada and Great West and from those States and Provinces from which a very large percentage of our immigration comes.

To keep pace with a rapidly growing city and to increase accurately the capabilities of this rapidly developing district the fair must annually expand in scope and improve in quality and the exhibition for 1906 should surpass all predecessors. This does not mean that the enterprise should be undertaken in a spirit of reckless extravagance, but that its success should not be endangered by a penurious policy. The success of the undertaking can be assured and can only be assured by provision for all the reasonable expenditures necessary to its conduct. It is not desirable that a large deficit be the net result of the undertaking, but it would be fatal to the enterprise to conduct it on the basis of severe retrenchment in the hope of securing a large surplus.

The plan for the management of the enterprise has not yet been decided on but it appears likely that the proposal of the delegation from the exhibition Association will be adopted. By this arrangement the council would retain to itself the powers of supervising the expenditures and general conduct of the exhibition while the committee appointed by the citizens might be so composed as to include several of the directors of the old association, thus securing to the enterprise the benefits of their experience. An alternative proposal might be the appointment of a commissioner or board of commissioners to manage the fair under the direction of the city council. While this would ensure complete control of the exhibition, it is doubtful whether experienced commissioners could be secured and whether this plan would secure the same degree of popular co-operation as the former. Whichever plan be adopted the matter should be settled at an early date and the machinery be set in motion without delay to make the fair the biggest and best in the city's history.

CURRENT COMMENT

Fitz and his wife have called off their bout. There were no gate receipts.

Winnipeg has made the C. P. R. pay $4000 taxes. Watch for the rise in freight rates.

St. Petersburg communications must be cut off. No "Prefect of Police shot" has been reported for three days.

The Winnipeg man who sold his wife for $40 was probably paid in "iron dollars." At the current rate of discount this would amount to about 30 good pieces of silver.

The Winnipeg Telegram opines that Winston Churchill "is a lightweight of the most pronounced type and he never will be anything else." This need not worry Winston, for a better authority than the Telegram once called Campbell-Bannerman "hopeless mediocrity."

The Toronto World has discovered that "first class brains are lying fallow all over the land from sheer lack of the first movement towards fecundity." The theory that Ontario's brains are utilized as a fertilizer may explain the treatment accorded to western problems by the World and its associates.

A Winnipeg Galician sold his wife for $40 and a cruel-hearted cynic remarks that some men would be winners if they could peddle off their better halves at 30 cents. The incident is not without parallel however. Cases are even recorded of ladies being "given away" and they were considered "dear" at that.

A New Brunswick paper having seen the error of its ways and become a supporter of the Federal Government the Mail and Empire throws a protracted fit in the course of which it proclaims that "During the elections in Alberta and Saskatchewan, the agents of the Government bought at a high figure, a large number of smaller papers in these provinces, and turned them into opponents of the provincial 'rights party.' If the Mail and Empire would cite the specific instances of papers in these provinces whose policy altered at the time specified a show of color might be given to the charge. But as the press of the province has been in overwhelming majority consistently supporting Liberalism for years the shriek of the Mail sounds suspiciously like a hungry wail for the good old days when the country was plundered for the benefit of the Mail and its allies.

THE NEWS IS NERVOUS
(Medicine Hat News)

When the notable events of 1905 are chronicled, the fact that the white-winged dove of peace has fluttered over Calgary and Edmonton and healed old grievances will be written large in black-face type. While we don't take much stock in this seventh son of a seventh son business, yet we would be well pleased, just now, to be endowed with the power of prophesying ascribed to these young men of peculiar genealogy in order to get a line on what this burying of the hatchet means. They tell us that when thieves "all out honest men get their due, and the inference is that when thieves fall in again there is bound to be something doing. The News doesn't want to cry "wolf" too soon, but views this Calgary-Edmonton truce with a darkly suspicious eye just the same, and sits back with fear and trembling to await the denouement in connection with what might be regarded as an unholy compact against the peace, prosperity and progress of the other municipalities of Alberta.

FARMER'S MARKET

Wheat is a trifle lower today than last week, but otherwise the farmer's market is unchanged.

The Dowling Milling Co. quotes wheat at 53 cents for No. 4 northern, and 60 cents for No. 2.

At the city market oats are still quoted at 23 cents for feed and 25 cents for milling. Barley is 25 cents for feed.

Coal remains unchanged at $3.50 a ton, and deliveries are large. Other deliveries are light today.

SAC STE ANNE.

Lake Ste Anne, Jan. 20.—During last fall and the present winter this settlement has experienced a building boom. Magloir Belcourt built a private residence, Henderson and Son a general store, S. J. M. Michaud a house and stable and Father Lizzie has made extensive repairs on the Mission property. Considerable land has changed hands, the principal vendors being Magloir Belcourt, M. Adaha and John Anderson. The prices range from $20 to $50 per acre. Most of the land has been bought in acre lots upon which private and public buildings have been erected or are in course of construction.

Wellington Lee is our village blacksmith. He is also a fish king of Ste Anne and White Whale Lake. He reports a splendid catch of fish at the latter lake and estimates the daily catch at 4000 fish or an average of nearly 100 fish per man employed in this industry.

Lake Ste Anne is full of fish but for some unexplainable reason no one has ever been able to locate them in winter, while in summer and autumn the catch is invariably good. However W. P. Beaupre of Onaway is making a desperate effort to locate them.

A petition asking for telephone communication with Edmonton is being circulated here and is being largely signed. Another important necessity is a bi-weekly mail, at present the department giving us but one mail a week.

Father Lizzie and Peter Gunn accompanied by his daughter, Bessie spent part of last week in Edmonton.

In a few weeks this ambitious burg will boast one of the finest hotels west of Edmonton. The building will be 28 by 60 feet and built of lumber. The contract has been awarded to Messrs. Dolan & Olds of Fort Saskatchewan. The building of such a large hotel has been found necessary on account of the constantly increasing traffic which passes through this settlement to the west.

Many Dominion land surveyors with their gangs of men have recently gone to different points west of here for the purpose of getting the beautiful and rich open plains ready for the settlers, many of whom have also gone before the surveyors and settlers. These almost daily arrivals serve to make business brisk and already the trail by way of Lac Ste Anne is pronounced the best and by far the most feasible one that leads to our western heritage. The present excellent winter trail from here to the mouth of the McLeod by way of McLeod's ranch will be further improved and next summer will be utilized as a wagon road.

Dan Noyes of Noyes' crossing who operates a saw mill on the Sturgeon has added a planer to his business. He will manufacture the lumber for the new hotel here.

Last week John and Isadore Finlay arrived from the Rocky mountains where they have recently been trapping. They brought to the Hudson Bay Store a large assortment of furs.

On the 9th inst. at Onaway, born to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Erickson a son.

We are sorry to report the serious illness of Mr. Tucker of Onaway, who has been confined to his bed for two or three weeks.

WATTY WATSON WANTS A MATCH.

Watty Watson, of Calgary and other places, who has been doing a few stunts in the roped arena, has quit the squared circle for the mat, and wants to take a fall out of Jack Curran in Edmonton, for the entire gate and a bunch of simoleons on the side. Watty is not a man for delays, but wants to go on at once, mentioning Friday as his date regardless of the bonspiel and several other attractions. The following is the letter:

Calgary, 19-1-1906,
Sporting Editor,
Edmonton Bulletin.

Dear Sir,—I understand there is a middleweight wrestler in your city, by the name of Jack Curran, and that he is ready and willing to meet all comers at or near his weight. Will say in regard thereto that I am in the business myself, and at the present time hold the middleweight championship of both North and South Dakota. Would be very much pleased to meet Mr. Curran at any future date, providing satisfactory arrangements can be made. Some date the last of the week preferred—Thursday or Friday night.

Will state that as I have been under quite a bit of expense coming into this country, and, as yet, have had no matches, the only way I will agree to come to Edmonton and meet Curran is for the winner to take entire gate receipts, and I have also a few dollars left that I will bet at ring side, if Mr. Curran cares to cover it. My weight is 161 lbs, stripped. Would like to make match best three in 5 falls.

Hoping you will get my challenge in first issue of paper, and that you can see Mr. Curran and let me know at once what can be done. Yours very respectfully,
WATTY WATSON.
Care of Empire Hotel, Calgary, Alberta.

Curran was shown the above letter today, and said that he would be ready to take Watson on, but did not care much about Friday, when everyone would be excited over the finishes in the bonspiel, and the wrestling gate would probably total about 30 cents.

The match will be arranged over the long distance phone tonight, probably for Tuesday of next week.

VEGREVILLE DEFEATS LLOYDMINSTER.

Vegreville, Jan. 20.—Special to the Bulletin.—The strenuous winter game was inaugurated in the great Vermillion Valley last night, when the Vegreville and Lloydminster hockey teams met on Lloydminster ice. A challenge had been sent up, and seven Vegreville stalwarts went down to represent the club. On arriving they were surprised to see a fine covered rink just nearing completion, which is larger than the Edmonton rink by 5 or 6 feet each way. Enthusiasm also seems to reach the limit in the fact that the rink is flooded by water drawn in tanks for three miles. The game was a clean, gentlemanly one, no one being sentenced to even a minute on the fence, and for the time and opportunities the teams have had, there was a fair exhibition of hockey. There is good material in both teams for good sevens.

The score was 2 to 1 in favor of the visiting team.

The boys were accompanied by Barney Huyck, the father of new Vegreville, who exhibits his pride in his town on every occasion; Archie Fleming and McRae, two "has beens," and Jack Nesbitt. Corner Rush also was taken down, but fortunately was not needed.

The line up was as follows: G. Hamilton, goal; H. Stiles, point; H. I. Sample, cover; J. Harman, rover; A. Miller, centre; G. Miller, left; T. J. McNamara, right.

S. R. Scott, goal; A. Reed, point; C. Clements, cover; C. Spence, rover; Roy McLeod, centre; H. L. Cunningham, left; Bert Jacey, right.

Wash oilcloths and linoleums with warm water and Sunlight Soap, rinse clean and wipe dry. The colors will be preserved and the surface unharmed.

Common soaps fade the colors and injure the surface. Sunlight Soap cleans, freshens and preserves oilcloths and linoleums.

Sunlight Soap washes clothes white without injury to the most delicate fabrics, or to the hands, for it contains nothing that can injure either clothes or hands.

Sunlight Soap is better than other soaps, but is best when used in the Sunlight way (follow directions).

Equally good with hard or soft water.

BOARD OF TRADE

The council of the board of trade held a meeting in the board rooms on Saturday afternoon at which a lot of important business was transacted. The selection of representatives who are to go to Winnipeg on the Canadian Northern excursion was the most important feature of the afternoon's business.

The names of the ninety were selected and care was taken to comply with the Canadian Northern Company's request that the list should be confined as far as possible to shippers doing business with the road. Sixty-five these are Edmonton business men and the balance from Strathcona.

A letter was read from the Chicago Automatic Telephone Co. stating that their expert would be in Winnipeg to meet the board and give demonstrations of their appliances on the occasion of the excursion.

A motion was passed recommending the Provincial Government to make a grant of not less than $5,000 to the Western Canada Immigration Association, for the purpose of advertising the province in the United States.
A resolution was adopted pointing out to the Dominion Government the necessity of improving the navigation of the Little Slave River.
A letter was received by the secretary of the board of trade this morning from the Calgary board thanking the Edmonton board for their generous action in deciding to help Calgary to get the Dominion fair for 1907.
